

CEO transition
6.10.22

Dear Members,

The SCPhA Board of Directors has accepted the resignation of Chief Executive Officer Helen Sairany and has appointed immediate past-president Ron Guida to serve as interim CEO. Many of you know Ron from his service on the board and his many years as a practicing pharmacist and pharmacy owner in South Carolina. During this transition, he and the staff will continue working hard to meet your needs through educational programming, advocacy, and communication about important issues facing the pharmacy community in our state.

The Board's mission is to assume direct responsibility for defining and ensuring SCPhA's organizational performance on behalf of the membership. Therefore, selecting a CEO and ensuring a successful leadership transition are among our most important duties. We will keep you informed as our work progresses.

We appreciate Helen's service and wish her the best in the future. SCPhA is an outstanding association, and we believe the opportunity to serve as its CEO will attract a strong pool of candidates.

Sincerely,
